Notes for Riding the Open-Top Bus

- Strong wind and rain, other severe weather, or any case where the Japan Meteorological Agency has issued an advisory or warning may, at our discretion, cause the service to be suspended or cancelled.
- In rainy weather we provide simple ponchos (rain covers).
- There is no toilet on board, and there are no rest stops en route.
- In all cases, please follow the instructions of the crew.
- Wind, rain, tree sap, bird droppings, etc. may cause you to get wet or soil your clothing.
- Please take care that personal belongings such as hats do not blow away.
- Please take care when using the steps when boarding and alighting. They become very slippery in the rain.
- Please take your own precautions against sunburn, heatstroke, and the cold, as appropriate to the temperature and weather.

We accept no responsibility for any harm to customers arising from these matters.

Prohibited

- Moving between seats while the bus is moving
- Using umbrellas or parasols (upper deck)
- Eating, drinking, or smoking (drinks with lids are allowed, alcohol is not)
- Putting hands or your head outside the bus, or touching roadside trees
- Bringing pets on board
- Holding infants or toddlers on an adult's lap

The bus is designed after a traditional wooden hot-spring basin.

Decorated with rising steam and splashes of water, its look captures the spirit of Beppu and Yufuin, two of Kyushu's iconic hot spring towns.
